ACTIVITY SUMMARY REPORT
FOR THE QUARTER ENDING MARCH 31, 2006

Residential Facility Inspection – 5021 Angelus Vista Blvd., View Park, Second District

On February 7, 2006, Treasurer and Tax Collector (TTC) staff participated in a multi-agency effort in response to complaints from residents of an unlicensed residential treatment facility at 5021 Angelus Vista Blvd., View Park. Agencies involved included the Sheriff's Department Marina Del Rey Station, Regional Planning, the District Attorney's Office, and TTC. The inspection revealed twelve individuals living in the residence, although neither the owner nor a manager was on site. No citations were issued by the Sheriff Department for operating a boarding house without a County business license. However, the District Attorney will contact the property owner to schedule a conference to discuss the matter.

Business License Denial – Food Establishment, Monica's Market, 3845 Blanchard Street, City Terrace, First District

On February 22, 2006, the Business License Commission conducted a public hearing regarding a recommendation to deny a food establishment business license for Monica's Market at 3845 Blanchard Street, City Terrace. At the public hearing, representatives from the Sheriff's Department East Los Angeles Station requested the license be denied. It was stated that this business poses a physical danger to the public because of the gang activity at that location. The Sheriff Department representatives provided the Business License Commission with evidence that illegal gambling and weapons have been at this location. After the close of the public hearing, the Business License Commission approved the recommendation to deny.

Business License Denial – Salvage Dealer, Lennox Recycling Center, 10702 South Inglewood Avenue, Inglewood, Second District

On March 22, 2006, the Business License Commission conducted a public hearing regarding a recommendation to deny a salvage dealer business license for Lennox Recycling Center at 10702 South Inglewood Avenue, Inglewood. At the public hearing, representatives from Regional Planning and County Counsel requested the license be denied. It was stated that the business activity is not a permitted use at this site. It was also stated that there were a number of other zoning and planning violations. After the close of the public hearing, the Business License Commission approved the recommendation to deny.
